Digital Curation:

How do I curate all the resources I am being introduced to? Find out what will disappear after grad and if it is important, find out how to save it.

Do you know where your source file is?

Can you search it?

Is the source fil available to edit if needed?

If it is a copy of someone's work do you have the citation for it?

Do you have a system for organizing and naming files and folders?

As teachers, being networked is really important and having that all organized is equally important.

Sense: sensing is how we perceive information and use it. Sensing includes reflection and storing.

EdCamp

How can we bring outdoor education into core education classrooms?
- Trips that we can weave into the class
- Wednesday walks
- Walks pre discussion but they have a discussion topic to be thinking about while they are walking.
- Go outside once a day or once a week to promote the outdoors and make it consistent and reliable.
